-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

CLAIMS

Summary

Claims 1,11 and 25 are the independent claims under consideration in this Office Action.

Claims 2-10,12-24 and 26-33 are the dependent claims under consideration in this Office Action.

Claim Language

In claim 25, line 6, "a series or" should be replaced by "a series of".

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 25 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being anticipated by Freeman et al. (6,574,815).

Freeman et al. teach a method for attaching a border of material to a workpiece. Freeman et al. teach the method comprising feeding a length of border or gusset material 18 from a supply and folding it and attaching this to a workpiece 12 at a spaced location with respect to the edge of the gusset (figure 1) where the sewing machine sews (19) the gusset to the workpiece along a first straight line (figure 14) and then passes through a corner (figure 5). When the corner is being formed, ruffles 32, 33 (figure 2) are formed. The gusset is then sewn in a straight line and then an initial portion of the gusset (figure 6) is sewn to a cut trailing edge of the gusset (from column 5, lines 5-9). A tape 22 is sewn to the gusset and this in turn is sewn to a side panel 11 of the mattress.

ALLOWABLE SUBJECT MATTER

Claims 1-24 are allowable over the prior art of record.

Claims 26-30, 32 and 33 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

PERTINENT CITATIONS

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Block illustrates a side panel for a mattress including ends that are attached to each other. Brocklehurst illustrates a panel sewing apparatus with means for sewing rounded corners. Sollars, Jr. illustrates a cushion including ruffles at the corners. Scrougham illustrates a bed skirt including ruffled corners. Reimer et al. illustrates a mattress construction including tucks at the corners.
